

Tracking: From the Flag to the Glove
Introduction to AKC Tracking for Beginners

Saturday April 28, 2012 9:00AM to NOON
Mohonk Fields, New Paltz, NY

Hudson Valley Tracking Club (HVTC) is pleased to once again offer our improved tracking workshop which provides instruction on basic tracking techniques to help people get started and learn how to continuing training on their own. This "hand-on" workshop will start promptly at 9:00 with group instruction and demonstrations on beginning tracking, followed by field work with the dogs. For the field work, participants will work in small groups with an experienced instructor who will assist them in working with their dog on the tracking techniques learned during the group session. The instruction will emphasize motivational techniques to help the beginner tracking dog. HVTC will provide each participant with flags and written materials for review once he or she is back at home. A continental breakfast will be available. This workshop is held outdoors and hopefully we will have a beautiful day. Directions and additional information will be emailed to you with confirmation of your registration. For questions, contact: Linda Boncek 203-910-8482 or e-mail Lboncek@gmail.com Register early to secure your place in this popular seminar!

Fee: $50.00 per team (dog and handler) $40.00 per auditor.

Registration Deadline: Friday April 13, 2012, or when full. Space is limited to 24 working teams, auditors are not limited.

Refunds: No refund will be issued to any working team after April 13, 2012 unless there is a replacement for the team.

Mail application payable to HVTC to Linda Boncek, 16 Scott Road, Oxford CT 06478
